

FAIRFIELD COUNTY ACLU

Monday
March 5, 2012
6 p.m.

Norwalk Public Library
1 Belden Avenue
Norwalk, CT

You're invited to join the Fairfield County Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union of Connecticut for its annual meeting, election of officers and a discussion of personal privacy, due process and surveillance camera technology. Guests and new members are welcome. Refreshments will be served.

Cameras & the Constitution

A discussion of the use of surveillance cameras for traffic enforcement and other purposes will be led by two distinguished panelists:

Harry Rilling has been with the Norwalk Police Department for 40 years, the last 16 years as its chief. He is a U.S. Navy veteran with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Iona College and master's degree in public administration from the University of New Haven.

David McGuire has been the staff attorney for the American Civil Liberties Union of Connecticut since 2007. He graduated from Purdue University with a bachelor's degree in history and earned his law degree from Western New England College School of Law. His areas of interest include digital privacy.
