

10 WAYS TO GET INVOLVED

- 1. Stay informed about civil rights and liberties issues by visiting acluct.org.
- 2. Raise awareness in your own circle and urge people to take action with everyday conversation or your own online or in-person gathering.
- 3. Sign up for action alerts both Nationally and locally in Connecticut.
- 4. Consider hosting an ACLU event to help inform and engage your friends in activism and fundraising. Contact Philanthropy@acluct.org for details.
- 5. Participate in action opportunities by joining the ACLU of Connecticut for door knocking and canvassing, rallies, press conferences, and other actions. Sign up online using <https://action.aclu.org/webform/ct-volunteer-now>.
- 6. Stay in touch with state elected officials to encourage them to adopt pro-civil rights and liberties policies and practices through in-person meetings, testimony, and public hearings. Legislative toolkits and advocacy resources are available at acluct.org and our YouTube page.
- 7. Get ready to vote by checking your voter registration status, identifying your polling place, or requesting your absentee ballot.
Note: same-day registration and early voting is available in Connecticut.
- 8. Consider volunteering for like-minded social justice organizations to promote change.
- 9. Follow us on social media and amplify our messaging by sharing ACLU of Connecticut social media posts or use information to create posts in your own voice on Instagram, X, and Facebook.
- 10. Invest in the work by becoming an ACLU monthly member, or through a contribution that feels meaningful to you. Contact Philanthropy@acluct.org for more information or go online to www.acluct.org/donate.

With small and large actions, everyone can partner with the ACLU in our work towards fair, equitable and thriving communities.

Become a monthly member

Make a one-time donation

ACLU
Connecticut

