

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: VOTING AND IDS IN CONNECTICUT

Under Connecticut law, you do NOT need a photo ID to vote.

IF YOU ARE A FIRST-TIME VOTER in a primary or general election with a federal candidate on the ballot, you can use:

- A copy of a current, valid photo ID that shows your name and address (this does not need to be a government-issued photo ID)
- OR a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck or government document that shows your name and address
- OR you can cast a provisional ballot without presenting any of form of identification

ALL OTHER VOTERS CAN USE:

- Your social security card
- OR any pre-printed form of identification that shows your name and address, or name and signature, or name and photograph
- OR you can sign Form ED-681, "Signatures of Electors Who Did Not Present ID," a form that affirms your identity without presenting identification
